Local plan goes out for review

By ANDERS LARSSON
anders@tindlenews.co.uk

A TWO-MONTH public review on a long-term planning blueprint will start on December 1st.

East Devon District Council (EDDC) has promised to thoroughly promote the public review - but says any alterations to the draft will be fine-tuning as opposed to wholesale changes.

Members of EDDC's Development Management Committee sat through an all-day meeting last Friday to study the 230-page Consultation Draft Plan from cover to cover.

Last Friday's meeting saw the blueprint complete its journey through the committee stage at EDDC.

It has, at times, been a rocky journey, with some councillors claiming to have been gagged and stopped from speaking out.

In addition, at least one proposed development included in the the draft is subject to a legal challenge.

EDDC has analysed data and consulted with communities for five years, with the aim of producing a document that started out as the Local Development Framework (LDF).

Under the new Coalition Government, the name of the document that every council must devise has now changed to the Local Plan.

The next step in this process is a public review, which will start on December 1st and last for two months.

The blueprint sets out strategic and local policies to guide, manage and regulate development in east Devon to 2026.

An EDDC spokesperson said: "Feedback on the planning blueprint will be used to fine tune these proposals to produce a revised version of the Local Plan for further review and formal examination by the Government in 2012/13.

"The draft Local Plan puts forward a holistic approach to planning policy in the district for the coming 15 years, setting out clearly where the main growth areas for housing and jobs are likely to be, whilst enabling rural areas to develop at their own chosen pace."

As an example of what the draft includes, the proposed strategic employment land allocation for the following towns is:

- Axminster 8 hectares
- Honiton 15 hectares
- Ottery St Mary 3 hectares
- Seaton 0 hectares

EDDC promises to thoroughly market the public review and encourage residents to take part.

The spokesperson explained: "EDDC will be promoting the public review through its website, through news columns of the local press and through full-page advertisements in local newspapers.

"The council will also be drawing attention to the Local Plan review through a leaflet being sent to every home in the district."

The draft Local Plan is already available online as part of last Friday's meeting at www.eastdevon.gov.uk/special_development_management_full_agenda_181111.pdf.

'Wow' class

A FIELD classroom — with an in-built wow factor — has been officially opened at Axe Estuary Wetlands.

The classroom holds up to 50 students and sits on stilts over a reedbed.

East Devon District Council (EDDC) owns three reserves on the Axe — Seaton Marshes, Colyford Common and Black Hole Marsh — and has a long-term ambition to create a single nature reserve stretching from Seaton to Colyford.

The official opening took place on Friday, November 18th and an EDDC spokesperson promoted the facility by saying: "The classroom is accessed via an island boardwalk designed to provide a magical wow-factor entrance through a reed tunnel.

"It has been built for schools, colleges and adult groups to use in case of bad weather, bolstering the all-weather capacity for wetlands education on the site."

Three arrested

POLICE arrested three men in connection with two burglaries which took place in Axminster overnight between Thursday, November 17th and the following day.

The burglaries took place at commercial premises on Millwey Rise and in a private dwelling in the Musbury Road area. Following interview, two men were released with no further action — but the third man was charged with two counts of burglary.

Town to say fond farewell

SEATON town development manager Carolyn Dunn will leave after less than half a year in the job.

East Devon District Council (EDDC) announced on Friday, November 18th that she is leaving the post to pursue other business interests.

Her last day will be Wednesday November 23rd.

Ms Dunn is employed by Seaton Town Centre Partnership and her salary is jointly funded by EDDC and Seaton Town Council with a contribution from Tesco, as part of an agreement resulting from the granting of planning permission for the new store.

The statement explained that her two-year contract included a clause that both employee and employer could review the position six months in and, after considering her situation, she had decided to move on.

She was quoted as saying: "I have enjoyed my time in Seaton. I have made a lot of friends and I have particularly enjoyed working with the chamber of commerce.

"I am pleased to be around to see the new Tesco open and that the public realm around the store is looking so good.

"We have set up the town centre partnership — with members from EDDC, the town council and the business community.

"We have also started to see some improvements — like bunting in the town centre, a facelift for the toilets and Christmas trees on shops for the Christmas Festival on December 9th and 10th.

"However, I do not feel that the work here has met the expectations I had when I took on the job.

"I have therefore decided to leave now and follow other business opportunities."

Carolyn arrived in Seaton with an impressive CV, which included a spell as chief executive of The City Management Company in York.

Seaton Chamber of Commerce chairman Marcus Hartnell said: "We have had an excellent working relationship with Carolyn and were looking forward to seeing some of the projects that we'd worked on coming together.

"We are disappointed that she is leaving but we wish her all the very best for the future".

Councillor Stephanie Jones, EDDC's champion for Seaton, said: "It is a great shame that we will be losing Carolyn, who was an asset to the town with great potential.

"We respect her decision. The district council will continue to work for the economic wellbeing of Seaton and we will continue to work with the chamber of commerce to this end.

"We will do our best to jointly minimise any negative impact that Carolyn's departure might cause.

"At this time we are unclear as to the implications for the town centre partnership".

Councillor Graham Godbeer, chairman of Seaton Regeneration Programme Board, said: "EDDC is investing funds and officer time in a number of initiatives designed to take Seaton forward.

"We have an ongoing interest in improving the economic well-being of Seaton and this new, though disappointing, development gives us an opportunity to review how best to achieve that in the future."

DCC praised over chevron

By ANDERS LARSSON
anders@tindlenews.co.uk

TWO parish councillors have praised Devon County Council (DCC) for acting on their road safety proposal.

Peter Rugg and Rick Wood — both members of Shute Parish Council — say the new chevron at the sharp bend at Shute Pillars, just off the A35, is just what the doctor ordered.

They are also delighted that DCC will restore the stricken pillar before Christmas.

It was on March 3rd that one of the two landmark pillars was flattened by a car and turned into a pile of rubble when a car failed to negotiate the sharp bend.

Nobody was seriously hurt but a similar accident happened in 2008, which is why Mr Rugg asked for something to be done.

At the time he suggested an added chevron, which is precisely what he got.

His fellow councillor Mr Wood was very pleased and said of the new chevron: "It stops the eyeline going straight on."

Both of them praised county councillor Andrew Moulding, council officers Brian Hoare and Tony Matthews — and the county council as a whole for taking their concerns seriously and getting something done.

Mr Rugg also explained that he had been told that DCC hopes to have the flattened pillar back to its former glory before Christmas.

This was subsequently confrmed by a DCC spokesperson, who told Pulman's View: "Stone masons are currently working on the new sections of stone and reconstruction is scheduled to be carried out before Christmas."

SCHOOL: A NEW VISION

Federation 'the way forward'

AXE Valley Community College has presented its vision for a federation with primary schools.

As reported a few weeks ago, the college seeks to federate with primary schools in what is known as Axe Valley Learning Community

The invited schools have since heard a presentation and been given time to think about the proposal, so there is no indication of the uptake yet.

As this newspaper went to press, the college continued the early phase of the project by hosting an open information evening.

In short, a federation is about pooling resources to gain educational and financial benefits.

Among benefits, according to the college prospectus, are:

- A high quality transition programme that enables learners to move between Key Stage 2 and Key Stage 3 with confidence and make an excellent start in a secondary setting.
- An extension of high quality literacy support beyond primary phase.
- Giving leaders the chance to focus on education and be less burdened by bureaucracy and administration.
- The development of a high quality, professional central team to provide back-office services.
- Greater flexibility to deploy resources.
- Greater opportunity to secure best value for all schools, make adjustments to staffing structures and maintain a high standard of education.

Needless to say, there could be concern about job losses.

The federation prospectus addresses this issue by stating: "Removing duplication of roles across schools through centralised back office services will enable schools to reduce support staff costs.

"This can be achieved over time through natural wastage and restructuring existing roles.

"For example, a business manager or school administrator in a primary school with responsibility for health and safety, cleaning and premises could join a central team to support the delivery of these services across the federation.

"The school could appoint a flexible receptionist to cover busy periods of the day.

"Joint procurement procedures could reduce costs in areas like energy, IT hardware and software, consumables, stationery etc."

The college has consulted its staff and, according to headteacher Martin Smith, found "overwhelming support" for the federation idea.

He also said that the reduction of money in real terms had prompted schools and colleges to look and think in different ways.

But he stressed that even without financial pressures, federation was something they would have looked into.

He explained: "The educational benefits are very strong."

Mr Smith also re-emphasised a message about choice, saying: "We would like to stress that in a primary-secondary federation, parental choice about secondary schools remains completely unaffected."

Explaining the way forward, he said: "By Christmas we'll know which primary schools are interested in exploring federation with us and by mid-February a firm decision will be reached by governing bodies.

"A formal six-week consultation process will take place between March and April with a view to starting the new Federation in September 2011."

The federation prospectus, which runs to several pages, is available online at www.axevalley.devon.sch.uk

Question: Do slugs think?

◆ THE students who took part in the Challenge Day

A GROUP of Year 9 Colyton Grammar School students have been stretching their thinking skills at a Challenge Day hosted by Exeter University.

Questions the group where asked to answer included:

- Do slugs think?
- Why are two legs a disadvantage to humans?
- If you're not in California how do you know it exists?
- Can you imagine a world without laws?

Working in teams with students from seven other grammar schools in the South West, they prepared and presented their answers to a judging panel. Five Colyton students, Daniel Lloyd Davis, Siobhan Phillips, Finan Quincey, Emma Williams and Theo Brown, found themselves on winning teams.

Siobhan Phillips said: "The Challenge Day lived up to its name, but was lots of fun and helped me develop by getting me out of my comfort zone".

Theo Brown said: "I really enjoyed the way that it needed lateral thinking."

Vacancy as Tracey quits town council

A VACANCY has arisen on Axminster Town Council after the resignation of Tracey Huntley (Weycroft Ward).

It was recently announced that she has decided to stand down for "a combination of reasons".

Her fellow councillors were informed by town clerk Hilary Kirkcaldie when the council met on Monday, November 14th.

Mayor Andrew Moulding said she had been a council member for eight-and-a-half years, and added: "We thank her for her service on the council."

The vacancy will be formally announced by the town council on selected noticeboards, and a by-election will be staged if 10 or more electors formally request one.

If fewer than ten electors request a by-election, the town council will seek nominations for co-option.

Members still wanted

THOSE who were unable to attend a recent member recruitment event of National Trust Axe Valley Centre can still join.

The centre, one of the leading National Trust supporter groups in the South West, staged a coffee morning for new and prospective members at Yeoman's Acre Hotel, Colyford.

Those interested in joining can call membership secretary Janet Creasey on 01297 35880.

Harry in TV show last eight

◆ HARRY Allbrook

By BECKIE RUTHERFORD
pulmans@tindlenews.co.uk

HARRY Allbrook, a Year 10 student at Colyton Grammar School, has made it to the final eight in the regional heat of the BBC's "Off By Heart Shakespeare" competition.

Harry and two of his classmates travelled to Bristol to take part in the auditions for a TV programme open to students aged 13-15, which will be transmitted in the spring.

Competing with 200 other students from across the South West, Harry's performance of Macbeth's Is this a dagger soliloquy was "superb", said his English teacher, Fiona Harvey.

Harry, who loves drama, enthused: "It was nerve-wracking, especially the call-back, but overall a great experience".

He is waiting to hear if he has been chosen to take part in the televised Grand Final, to be recorded in January.

By ANDERS LARSSON
anders@tindlenews.co.uk

A YOUNG farmer from Seaton has secured a Devon County Agricultural Association (DCAA) bursary.

Sam Diepenbroek was selected from a group of more than 135 agriculture and engineering students.

The 18-year-old, who lives at Ashdown Farm, is in the final year of his National Diploma in agriculture at Bicton College.

His course tutor, lecturer Jeremy Silverton, said: "Sam is a very knowledgeable and capable student who excels in practical sessions.

"His theory and written work, while always good, have been improving greatly now that he has begun his final year at Bicton College."

Sam is a keen member of the college rugby team and is delighted to have been chosen for the award.

He said: "I'll spend the money on additional qualifications, such as stockmanship and tractor sprayer test to get me better qualified.

"The rest will help with travelling to college and personal protective equipment."

DCAA chief executive Mervyn Hosking said: "The association is pleased to continue supporting Bicton College students with the annual bursary of £1,000 to assist the recipients with their studies."

Police raid in drug pursuit

By ANDERS LARSSON
anders@findlenews.co.uk

POLICE raided a series of Axminster properties over two days in pursuit of stolen drugs.

As reported last week, arrests were made in connection with a break-in at Coombefield Veterinary Hospital in Axminster.

Very little information was available last week and police didn't issue any information immediately after the break-in.

Officers attended the hospital at about 1.20am on Saturday, November 5th to reports of a burglary.

Members of the public noticed large-scale police activity in Axminster on November 11th and 12th, and Honiton CID has since issued a statement, saying: "Honiton CID officers are investigating a burglary to Coombefield Veterinary Hospital in Axminster.

"Entry was gained to the premises and a quantity of drugs used in the treatment of animals were stolen.

"Police officers executed a warrant in Axminster on November 11th and some of the stolen items were recovered.

"A local male was interviewed and bailed for further enquiries to be made.

"On November 12th, more of the stolen property was recovered by police after several premises were searched following the arrest of three males in Axminster.

"Two of these males were interviewed and remain on police bail."

The investigation continues and police concluded by saying: "If anyone has any information in relation to this burglary, please contact DC 4425 Ware at Honiton CID on 08452 777444, extension 2609."

The crime reference is KA/11/493.

Window is smashed

POLICE are investigating the circumstances surrounding a smashed pane of glass in Axminster.

Officers were called to a South Street property at 10.40pm on Saturday, November 12th.

A force spokesman said that a pane of glass on a door was smashed.

The statement didn't say whether the incident is treated as attempted burglary or vandalism.

The spokesman added: "Investigations continue."

Gold Rush in Colyton

AWARD winning butcher Anton Bolton has recently attended the BPEX Britsh Pig Executive regional road show (South West) held at Sandy Park stadium in Exeter who judge and award products of excellence.

Gold-Silver and Bronze are awarded to products which have proved to the judges they are worthy of the rare awards in appearance, taste, and smell with no errors in manufacture.

Colyton Butchers entered 8 products and scooped 8 gold awards for sausages, meat pies, pork pies, and bacon.

Anton received 99% in most cases just missing out on category winning products. Anton was delighted with his success and is hoping this will attract new customers to the Colyton shop and also to the Axminster market on a Thursday and Honiton market on a Saturday where the gold products are always available.

East Devon pubs in Michelin's food guide

Two Honiton eateries have made a strong showing in the Michelin Eating Out in Pubs 2012 Guide. They are among 24 from the West Country in the guide.

Breaking into the coveted guide this year is family-run The Railway owned by husband and wife Jean-Baptiste and Melanie Sancey.

"We are delighted with the news and it is lovely to be recognised in this way," said Melanie.

"Making the guide will not change our clientele or the way we do things and we look forward to continue delivering the quality that won us this recognition."

The Holt, also in Honiton, has been in the guide since 2009.

Joe McCaig, landlord of The Holt, said : "It is nice to be in it again – it's a quality guide.

"Having two local pubs in the guide is good for the town, especially in the current climate where people are looking for something more interesting" he added.

Green award for brewery

OTTER IS AT THE HEART OF LOCAL LIFE, SAY JUDGES

◆ DAVID and Mary Ann McCaig, of the Otter Brewery

By CHARLIE TRAYNOR
pulmans@tindlenews.co.uk

THE family-run Otter Brewery was named the UK's most sustainable brewery by the Society of Independent Brewers (SIBA) at a business awards ceremony on Monday, November 14th.

Peter McCaig, the eldest of three sons involved in the business, said: "To be acknowledged by SIBA in this way as a leading light in our industry is a huge honour".

Otter won the "Best Sustainability" category for its "pioneering green efforts and ethically driven commitment to producing top-quality beer", illustrated by the building of the UK's first underground eco cellar.

The bespoke cellar is built half underground from low carbon honeycomb blocks in order to harness the earth's natural core temperature of 12°C to chill up to 5,000 casks of beer.

Judges said: "Brewing in a remote rural location demands the greatest of sensitivity in approach to environmental and long-term sustainability".

Other green initiatives at the brewery include using reed beds to naturally filter waste water, wildlife conservation and extensive recycling.

The brewery was also 'Highly Commended' in the 'Best Community Support' category for being "fully immersed in all aspects of local life".

70 firms at media talks

MORE than 70 businesses attended two free social media seminars, run by Marketing West, on Tuesday, November 15th, 2011.

The Dorset-based marketing and sales specialists held the seminars at the Fairwater Head Hotel, Axminster, and the Engine Room, Poundbury, where they covered a wide range of topics.

The seminars are the first in a series of marketing events arranged and hosted by Marketing West. Nigel Reeve, of Marketing West, said: "We set up these seminars to see if there was any interest.

"We found there were literally hundreds of businesses who really needed some help and advice. Both events were oversubsrcibed so we plan to re-run the events for those that couldn't attend".

Marketing West is planning further events early in the new year, details of which can be found on their website: www.marketingwest.co.uk

Bon appetit from the pride of Beer

EDITOR – Your correspondent Harry Hunt enthusiastically recommends Foley's Four C's restaurant.

Although I have lived in east Devon for about 24 years, I have not previously visited the establishment but will certainly do so now.

My wife and I lunch out twice weekly, as a result of which we have a wide knowledge of restaurants and gastro pubs throughout east Devon and west Dorset.

One in particular stands out for us and since the proprietor and head chef, Andy Williams, chooses to limit his advertising, I feel some of your readers may have yet to discover this gem.

I refer to Steamers Restaurant in Beer, which excels in all key elements.

Primarily, of course, the cuisine, with two and three-course set menus along with widely priced a la carte choices and freedom to mix and match with not a chalkboard in sight!

Special requests are readily met, the ambience is outstanding and so, too, is the warmth of welcome from proprietor and staff.

Finally, I should perhaps just add that my sole connection to all involved with this business is that of a customer.

Some answers please, Councillor Mike Allen

EDITOR – I was interested to read (Pulman's View, November 8th) that Councillor Mike Allen, chairman of East Devon District Council Local Development Framework Panel (LDF), claimed that I had been ejected from LDF Panel meetings on three occasions.

I was disturbed to read the report because I have no recollection of ever being ejected from a meeting at EDDC – LDF Panel or otherwise.

You might think that someone who had been ejected from a meeting would remember it.

Perhaps Mr Allen might like to enlighten readers as to who exactly it was that "ejected" me from meetings.

I wonder if he might be referring to a meeting of the LDF Panel in February 2011, when I complained about the LDF Panel meeting in private?

If that is the case, I feel a certain amount of pride in helping to ensure future LDF Panel meetings were held in the public domain, bringing an end to the system of developers talking to the LDF Panel in private about their plans for our communities.

I wonder if he might also be referring to a meeting of the LDF Panel on August 2nd in which he bullied Councillor Claire Wright (the youngest and one of the newest councillors on EDDC) and reduced her to tears in front of a room full of people?

I told him that he should be ashamed of his behaviour, and he owed Councillor Wright and everyone else in the room an apology.

Perhaps he might also be referring to a meeting of the LDF Panel on October 4th when the future of Ottery was discussed, and when he belatedly allowed me to speak, when he did not allow me to respond to an inaccurate statement by an officer and when he did not allow any debate following a proposal by Ray Bloxham.

Ottery was given a cursory 15 minutes (Exmouth was debated for four hours and 12 minutes). So I believed I was justified in saying as I left the meeting that the consideration of the future of Ottery was "disgraceful", at which point Mr Allen called me back to tell me that I had to leave the meeting.

I have always liked to think that one of my prime considerations in being an Ottery councillor was "fairness".

I am content to let other people who were present at the LDF Panel meetings come to a view on whether Mr Allen was fair to Ottery.

I am also happy to let people who were present at the meetings form a view as to whether Mr Allen's remarks, quoted in Pulman's View on November 8th, were accurate.

100 years old, and reunited with cousin

EDITOR – I would like to take this opportunity of thanking all the people who sent cards and messages for my 100th birthday.

There were over 80 people who remembered me in this way.

I would like to express my gratitude to all those who came to my Hallowe'en folk dance reunion party.

It was lovely to see so many people I hadn't seen for years. I've been rediscovered by a lost cousin who saw the publicity for this event and has since visited me.

My especial thanks go to Andrew and June Mycroft of Honiton Folk Dance Club and the Amycrofters Folk Dance Band.

They must have worked incredibly hard to gather together 38 members of the club I helped to found in 1950. The evening was more than wonderful.

The hall, stage and band were decked out for Hallowe'en. Some guests came in Hallowe'en garb and hats were available to add to the atmosphere.

I could not believe it when I saw the decorated cake and I was delighted to blow out the candles. Andrew and June had even gathered together an exhibition of photographs and memorabilia from my 1950's club. It was an absolutely perfect evening.

M5: Thanks from brigade

EDITOR - I would like to thank all those who have sent messages of thanks and support to the firefighters who were involved in the rescue operation after the appalling crash on the M5 near Taunton.

These messages have reached those who responded to this disaster and I know they have been greatly appreciated by staff and colleagues. As you would expect, we are supporting our staff but having your additional goodwill messages has helped us all tremendously.

We worked closely with police, ambulance, Highways Agency and NHS colleagues during the incident and members of the public were also active in trying to release and rescue trapped casualties in the minutes before our arrival.

It was a multi-agency team response, and I am convinced that had it not been so, the casualty toll would have been much greater.

There were heroic actions that evening and many lives were saved, although we are obviously desperately sad that seven people are no longer with us.

I am tremendously proud of my teams' actions that night and my thoughts, as do theirs, remain with those affected and I hope we never experience an incident like it again.

Gagged? Yes, my notebook proves it

EDITOR – Regarding claims by Councillor Mike Allen (chairman, EDDC Local Development Framework Panel) having had Councillor Roger Giles "ejected" from three of its meetings, I was present at two of those meetings.

What I saw was a passionate and committed local councillor attempting to do his best for his community definitely being gagged by the chairman of the LDF Panel.

At the LDF meeting on November 1st, Councillor Giles indicated his desire to speak on the agenda item about Ottery St Mary.

Councillor Allen immediately refused to allow it.

Councillor Giles asked if this was not a matter for the whole committee to decide and Councillor Allen replied (according to my hand-written notes taken at the time): "It is the chairman's decision and if Roger doesn't like it he can take it to the Standards Committee."

Just as disturbing was what came next, again according to my notes.

Numerous members of the LDF Panel were speaking among themselves as this exchange was taking place, among them, Councillor Claire Wright who said, calmly and politely, that she thought that decision was unfair.

Councillor Allen ignored the other committee members murmuring around him, stopped speaking, looked directly at Councillor Wright and said: "Claire, if you want to get the same problem, this is your last warning."

There had not been any previous warning to Councillor Wright nor had there been a warning to Councillor Giles (at any of the meetings I attended) that he would be prevented from speaking about Ottery St Mary at future meetings.

National Government policy is that the public should be able to record council meetings and even "tweet" while they are happening and that councils should encourage and facilitate this in the interests of transparent government.

Until Councillor Wright, Councillor Giles and others led a successful campaign, all LDF Panel meetings were held in secret with no published minutes, so we would have not known that such things were happening as it would have taken place behind closed doors.

EDDC has consistently refused to allow recording and plasters notices all over its meeting rooms saying that it is not allowed.

Had it been allowed at this meeting, it would have been perfectly clear who said what, though I am crystal clear about what happened and have my notes to prove it.

Wanted: A more central war memorial

I WAS most impressed with the Remembrance Ceremony held at the Windsor Gardens in Seaton on Friday 11th November.

It was well organised by the Royal British Legion and so well supported by residents. However, I thought it a shame that the town's war memorial that pays tribute to those members of the armed forces that gave their lives in two world wars, including my own father, is tucked away in the parish churchyard.

Normally, war memorials are in a central position in a town or village.

Would there be any merit in having the town's memorial moved to the Windsor Gardens or if that is not possible another one placed there?

It should not be that difficult to raise the funds.

Fossil fuels rule, okay?

EDITOR – Smart new houses are springing up in Honiton and Upottery and are said to be ideal starter homes for young people .

I have watched with interest as those in Honiton were built over the summer.

Due to the nature of the inner walls, it is easy to fit and hide services in the gap between the insulation and plastered inner layer.

So any fixing of leaks will be difficult without pulling the houses apart, unless of course each owner is provided with a plan showing exactly where the wall will have to be cut open to trace the fault. However, this was not the most absurd feature of the houses.

I was pleasantly surprised when I passed recently to see that they each sported a chimney pot. Could this be a win for common sense? The occupants might be short of space, but at least they were being given a choice in how they heated their houses.

Alas, the occupants of these dark town houses are condemned to the burning of fossil gas hydrocarbons.

No modern inclusion of solar heating, nor a south facing roof for solar electric, just accommodation that will be cold and dark enough to force the occupants to put on central heating.

So, there has been a waste of bricks, time and money to keep the planners happy; and the houses will force their occupants to use the most expensive forms of energy.

Cycle race netted £3m

THIS year's Tour of Britain cycle race, which sped through east Devon, has been credited with boosting the county's economy to the tune of more than £3 million in one day.

According to an independent report, commissioned by the tour, an additional £3.1 million was spent in the county on the day of the Devon stage of the cycle race on September 15th.

According to Devon County Council (DCC), more than 125,000 spectators lined the route from Exeter to Exmouth, many of them at West Hill.

A spokesman for DCC said: "A survey of more than 1,700 people who watched the Devon stage found that 100 per cent thought it was either a very enjoyable or quite enjoyable experience.

"Twenty per cent of these spectators stayed overnight in the area, away from their home, in order to watch the race.

"Based on an average group size of around two people, overnight visitors spent more than £110 per group while day visitors spent an average of almost £70 per group."

Customs warning

EAST Devon residents have been warned by Revenue and Customs to avoid unexpected charges when shopping for Christmas bargains abroad.

If you are going abroad to do Christmas shopping, or buying goods online from non-EU countries, you need to know how much you can buy before you have to pay import duty or VAT.

Arriving in the UK by commercial ship or plane from a non-EU country, you can bring in up to £390 worth of goods, excluding alcohol and tobacco, for personal use without paying customs duty or VAT. If you buy goods over the Internet or by mail order from outside the EU, you will have to pay VAT if the value of the package is over £15.

Spotted: Rare ladybird spots

TWO readers have been in touch on the subject of ladybirds and jackdaws.

Yvonne Holt, from Upottery, noted my recent reference to the presence in our area of the rare 13-spot ladybird and tells me that, since moving to Devon five years ago, she has encountered quite a few of these unlucky-numbered ladybirds in and around her thatched house.

They are, she writes, largely indoors and seem to be in groups. Are they preparing to hibernate, she wonders?

Considered extinct in the UK, a specimen of the 13-spot ladybird was recently discovered in the Axe estuary and, as the beetle prefers wet land and reeds, I wonder if Yvonne Holt's ladybirds are, in fact, this particular species.

The spots can be anything from seven to 15 and the beetle has an elongated appearance. Nothing is known of its hibernating habits. A photograph of a specimen would be very helpful.

Meanwhile, Clive Lewis from Hawkchurch told me that he recently watched jackdaws performing a curious tumbling display and wondered whether they were finding high-flying insects or were confused by the warmer weather into a spring breeding display.

In fact, jackdaws frequently indulge in high-flying twists, tumbles and dives, often in the evening, and one must assume as a light-hearted display. We have a large colony of 'daws close by and I have seen this behaviour on several occasions.

I understand that the hide at Black Hole Marsh in the Seaton marshes, which was deliberately damaged by arson, has now been repaired and is again open to the public. Good news!

As far as rarities are concerned, on November 7th Steve Waite, master bird spotter, had a close encounter with a wader he had never seen before. Initially he thought it was a dunlin but the different feeding action, short bill and long wings, led him to the conclusion that it was a white-rumped sandpiper, a bird which breeds in the tundra of Canada and Alaska and is a very rare migrant to Western Europe.

A few swallows have been seen lately, bees have been spotted collecting pollen and on November 5th and I saw two red admirals. My wallflowers are still in full bloom, while the apple tree in the garden has shed only a few leaves and still bears plenty of rosy apples. I am writing this column on November 17th and the landscape, now russet and yellow, still bears no resemblance to winter. It's all very puzzling and must be totally confusing for wildlife.

However, Dorset Wildlife Trust appears confident that winter will appear. On Sunday, December 4th they will be holding the Kingcombe Christmas Fayre at the Kingcombe Centre with a display of crafts, gifts and handmade products from rare breed sheep, woodcraft, local organic meat, honey, preserves, mulled wine and mince pies.

In addition, photographer Tony Bates will be signing copies of the new book "Dorset, a Naturalist's County" to help celebrate the 50th anniversary of the DWT.

The Kingcombe Centre will be open from 11am to 4pm at Lower Kingcombe, near Toller Porcorum. Entry is free and there will be refreshments throughout the day.

It is appalling to learn that Government agencies are considering sabotaging the long-awaited network of marine protected areas, promised by the Government for next year.

Years of campaigning resulted in the marine and Coastal Access Act of 2009 promising a network of protection around our coasts by 2012 but now the Government is feebly proposing to cut the 127 designated sites to a mere 30. Dorset has eight sites which are of vital importance if it is to enjoy a healthy coastline. You can help by signing the DWT online Petition Fish and by writing to your MP asking for support for the Marine Act proposals.

Mad hatter's glee party

DID you know that the now popular fascinator was originally called a tantaliser?

Members of Thorncombe Women's Institute learned this, and many other interesting facts, when they were transported to a Mad Hatter's tea party as Mr Snook opened box after box of magnificent hats brought from his shop in Bridport.

There were hats in all shapes, sizes and materials.

The history of hats included where they were made and many entertaining anecdotes. The final joy came from trying them all on. Altogether a most enjoyable afternoon.

The winner of the competition for a scarf was won by Julia Snellock and Meg Terrett won Flower of the Month.

Artistic felt

AT the November meeting of the West Country Embroiderers in Ottery the new representatives, Christine Barber and Kathleen Lawrence, provided members with pieces of felt.

These had been embellished with coloured sheep's wool, embedded in it for them to embroider

The pieces would be used to cover a small book or to make a spectacle case etc. The work shown at the end of the day was very pleasing and varied.

The December meeting will be the group's Christmas party.

Anyone interested in joining the group or coming to see what members do in January, please contact Pat Snelling on 01404 81222651 to make arrangements.

The group meets on the first Monday of the month at The Institute, Ottery St Mary.

Members fondly remember Janis

THE November meeting of Musbury and Whitford Women's Institute was held on November 8th.

It was very well attended, as it was the institute's 64th birthday. Lesley welcomed everyone, apologies were taken and birthday posies given.

Members held a minute's silence for Janis Nye, who has sadly passed away.

She was a serving committee member and will be very much missed by all members. Janis was such a live wire.

Records of the October meeting were made available.

Thanks were given to Joy and others, who organised the skittles and fish and chip supper. The sum of £174 was raised for the mental health counselling service ARC.

Carolyn then gave a report on the autumn council meeting in Barnstaple.

Arrangements were made for the Christmas meeting.

The birthday lunch is on November 24th at the Fairwater Head Hotel.

There will be a group quiz on November 22nd, at the Dolphin Hotel, Beer. That ended the business of the evening.

Next members held their annual meeting, voting for which took place en-bloc. As there will be another annual meeting in May 2012, a new member joined the committee, Jean Fullerton.

Records from last November's annual meeting were read, agreed and signed. Jackie was given a lovely cyclamen for her record keeping.

Members then had an enjoyable end to the evening, with birthday cake baked by Marnie. Wine, tea and coffee were also available.

The next meeting is on December 13th at 7pm at Whitford Village Hall.

Margaret's expertise with floral displays

THE autumn group meeting of Awliscombe Women's Insitute was held in the village hall attracting nearly 100 members from six institutes. Rosemary read the correspondence and each president reported on their last six months' activities.

Olive introduced Margaret Fairhurst who expertly arranged four flower displays.

The competition for a display depicting Hallowe'en was won by Feniton. The evening concluded with entertainment by Andy Hague.

The 66th annual meeting was well attended. Olive and Rosemary thanked everyone for all their support during the past year and Joy Price presented the accounts which are in a healthy position.

The competition for an arrangement in a kitchen utensil was won by Georgette Jameson.

Second was Pauline and third Betty Goodridge. The flower of the month ws a white clematis brought by Heather.

The raffle was won by Liz Silk and Meg Pipe. The tea hostesses were Georgette, Heather, Min Reynolds and Pat Burt.

The evening ended with each member making Christmas cards with fabric and card under the supervision of Chrissie Jackson. She was warmly thanked by Irene Maynard.

The Christmas dinner will be held at Honiton Golf Club and members will be carol singing around the village on Monday, December 19th in aid of Muscular Dystrophy.

Pulman's View from the churches

With NIGEL SPELLER

FATHER Michael Koppel, from Axminster, this week writes: "In our busy world, it's all too easy to overlook our Lord's call to live by his set of values – which may well be in sharp contrast to much of what's going on in the society around us.

"We need to take time out to reflect on our lives and to see whether we're putting our effort into the right things.

"And that's where the season of Advent, which starts next Sunday, can help us. These four weeks of preparation for Christmas offer us a golden opportunity to think hard about our life and work, and present us with a challenge to make radical changes to our way of living if this proves necessary.

"Is that a challenge we can cope with? It probably won't be easy. Nothing worthwhile ever is. And failure to heed our Lord's Advent call to renewal could lead to the tragedy of a life misspent."

The Charity Commission has published updated guidance on http://www.charitycommission.gov.uk/Charity_requirements_guidance/Charity_governance/Managing_resources/charitable_funds_overview.aspx.

This may be of interest to churches, particularly those who have trusts with unrestricted funds. The updated guidance replaces the commission's previous advice on investments and describes the legal duties and principles that apply to charity investments and the risks that trustees must address.

It offers a clear framework for decision-making but emphasises that it is up to trustees to decide on the most appropriate overall investment strategy for their charities.

There were big attendances at local churches for the annual Remembrance services and at Colyton Church a local member of the Fleet Air Arm, returned from the Middle East, read one of the lessons.

At Beer an exhibition was held in the Congregational Hall recalling the 39 men and one woman who were killed in two world wars, along with more who served and returned.

The final concert organised at Colyton by Margaret Clark after many years took place before a large audience.

The Friends of St Andrews have kindly agreed to take on the task of organising these events in future.

They hope the Russian Group Blagovest will return in 2012. Churches are being urged to cut back trees, erect bollards, and coat their walls with anti-climb paint, all in a fightback against metal thieves who stripped millions of pounds-worth of materials from roofs last year.

Seaton Methodist Church is hosting a Christian Aid Advent Service on Sunday, November 27 that 3pm at which the Rev Ian Kirby will be the preacher.

Crewkerne Christmas

Official switch on - 25 November 2011

Don't forget! Annual Lighting Up in Crewkerne takes place on Friday, 25th November

AT 7pm Santa will arrive on his sleigh, escorted by the Merriott Majorettes, along Market Street and into Market Square to help the Mayor and Town Crier turn on the Christmas lights. Then he will be in his Grotto in the Town Hall from 7.15pm to hear your Christmas wishes.

But there is plenty to enjoy before that!

The Craft Fair opens at 5.30pm in the Victoria Hall selling a range of products. We hope to have Farmer's Market and Charity stalls in Falkland Square where you could find a bargain or win a prize. There will also be children's fairground rides.

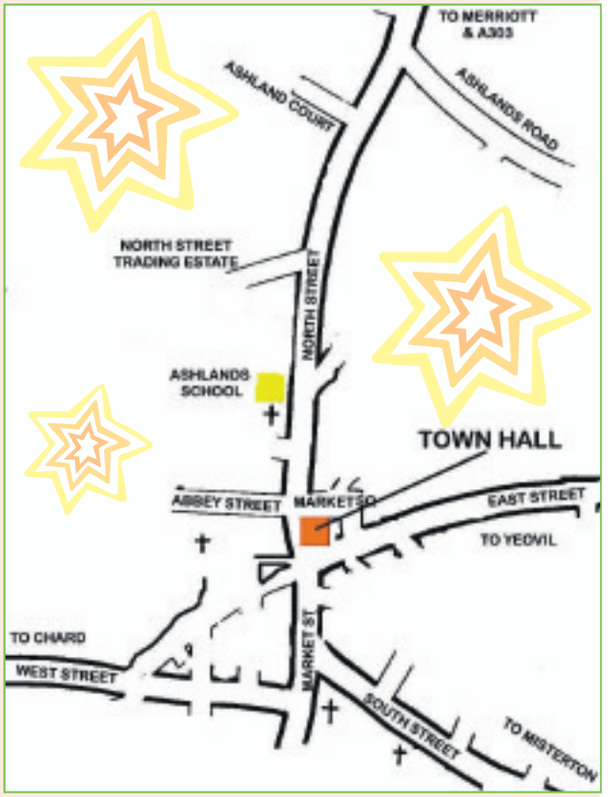

Midwest Radio will provide a musical background in Market Square while Phoenix Brass will play in Falkland Square. Join in the community carol singing with CUDOS and guests just before the switch on. The Heritage Centre in East Street will be open throughout the evening – you might even pick up a special Christmas goodie!

If you need something to eat then drop into one of the town cafes, have a hog roast at Barrett Brothers or enjoy a cup of tea and a piece of cake provided by the Crewkerne Churches Together in the Victoria Hall.

At 6pm judging of the Children's Fancy Dress Competition will take place in Market Square. Entry is free and open to children under the age of 8, the theme this year is Victorian and entry forms are available now from the Town Hall or Red Cross Shop.

For further information contact Annette on 01460 74001.

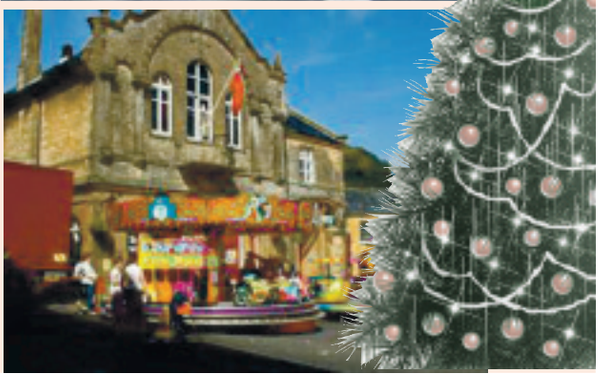

The Crewkerne Christmas Committee, which organises the Annual Lighting Up, hopes you will have an enjoyable evening and asks that you give generously to collectors. We need your support to ensure next year's event.

Johnny's folk tour at church

A REOPENED church will host a concert next month.

Following its prolonged closure as a result of severe flooding in 2008, St Andrew's Church in Feniton reopened its doors last March, with improved facilities and plans to use the space for wide-ranging community events.

Among other things, a barn dance has already taken place, a variety show will happen on Friday, November 25th, and now plans are well in hand for a special concert on Friday, December 9th.

This will feature nationally-known folk artist Johnny Coppin, with his All on a Winter's Night tour.

Along with Paul Burgess (violin and recorders) and Mick Dolan (guitars) Johnny will present "a feast of songs, carols, stories and folklore" from his extensive repertoire.

Pete Privett, who is organising the concert, said: "When I attended a meeting in March, where suggestions for future church events were invited, I put forward the possibility of folk music concerts and was promptly invited to organise one.

It wasn't a hard choice to try to book Johnny Coppin as this tour is rather exclusive, being a once-a-year event and also because Johnny rarely reaches as far west as Devon with it.

◆ FENITON'S St Andrew's Church, scene of the concert

"I was delighted when my speculative email to him suggesting a concert in east Devon was agreed to swiftly and enthusiastically.

"Now we look forward to filling the church and enjoying Johnny's special Christmas show."

Members and supporters of St Andrew's will be providing refreshments and front-of-house assistance.

Tickets costing £12 can be obtained from Pete on 01404 850755 or by emailing pete.privett@lineone.net.

Any profit from the event will be used to support the continued upkeep of the church.

Twilight is back with first saga

THE TWILIGHT SAGA: BREAKING DAWN - PART 1 (12A)

BABY makes three in this the fourth film based on the books by Stephenie Meyer, which brings the love story of a mortal and a vampire to a suitably bloody resolution.

Like the climactic outing of Harry Potter, this final chapter of the Twilight series has been cleaved in two, with the concluding instalment due in November 2012.

There's no credible artistic reason for the separation; the film-makers are simply milking their cash cow twice.

Breaking Dawn - Part 1 stretches a 50-minute narrative into almost two hours of lustful glances, bitter recriminations and CGI-heavy battles between bloodsuckers and their werewolf rivals.

Where one scene would normally suffice, screenwriter Melissa Rosenberg churns out two.

When one character's life flashes before their eyes, Rosenberg takes the idea literally and bombards us with a montage of key scenes from the previous three films.

When we left Bella Swan (Kristen Stewart), she had chosen vampire Edward (Robert Pattinson) over werewolf Jacob (Taylor Lautner).

Bella and Edward marry soon afterwards in front of her parents (Billy Burke, Sarah Clarke) and his blood-sucking clan – Dr Carlisle (Peter Facinelli), Esme (Elizabeth Reaser), Alice (Ashley Greene), Rosalie (Nikki Reed), Emmett (Kellan Lutz) and Jasper (Jackson Rathbone).

The newlyweds head to a private island off the coast of Rio de Janeiro to consummate their love.

Bella falls pregnant during the honeymoon and a half-human, half-vampire child grows at an accelerated rate, literally devouring Bella from within.

It doesn't bode well for Part 2.

The West Country's own Stompin' Dave Allen has been promoting and performing at music events with top touring artists from the USA this past year.

Dave has had remarkable success with musicians from Virginia, North Carolina, and Washington DC in venues across Dorset.

Dave now turns his attention to Devon with a night billed as Acoustic America featuring Aaron Jonah Lewis and Ed Hicks at The Dolphin Hotel, Beer on Thurday 1st December.

Aaron Jonah Lewis, a native of Michigan and long time resident of Virginia is a celebrated fiddle player with the world-renowned bluegrass and oldtime show masters Special Ed and the Shortbus, now known as The Hot Seats. Aaron's credentials as a traditional fiddler are hard to beat.

He has been a regular award winner in the bluegrass fiddle competition at The Galax Old Fiddlers Convention, the longest running old time and bluegrass festival in the United States, and in traditional and neo traditional band competitions at the Appalachian String Band Festival in Clifftop, West Virginia. In 2007 Lewis's band Special Ed won Grand Prize at the Independent Music World Series, Southeast Region, in Nashville, Tennessee.

He will be accompanied by his European touring partner the wonderful Ed Hicks, from London on guitar and banjo. This last month the duo have been touring the UK supporting eighties hit maker Thomas Dolby.

Support comes from Stompin' Dave Allen, winner of the FOA-OTMAD old-time banjo contest 2011. Dave has appeared at countless festivals including Glastonbury Festival, The Tolpuddle Martyrs Festival, and The Great Dorset Steam Fair. Dave's performance at The Marine Theatre, Lyme Regis this summer gained him a rave review from the Daily Telegraph "a master of all kinds of American roots music...a formidable musician and a true original." Recently Dave gave a barnstorming performance at The Secret Sister's from Alabama sell out concert at The Electric Palace, in his hometown of Bridport.

The show at The Dolphin Hotel starts at 8pm with doors opening at 7.30pm. For tickets please call or visit Seaton TIC . For online ticket sales visit the website www.stompinstore.com .

Debbie Lindsey

NEWS AND MARKET UPDATE FROM GORDON AND RUMSBY

So, we are winging our way towards Christmas again and is anyone else looking forward to it more than usual? My children (well hardly children anymore at 19 and 16) seem to be and I find myself doing the same. Perhaps it's just because we need something to feel positive about? Here we are in yet another year of uncertainty and with a bleak financial outlook towards the future. After all, it has been four years now since the crisis started with Northern Rock and we don't seem to be coming out of it yet. However, we are not going to let that dampen our enthusiasm here at Gordon and Rumsby like our colleagues at this publication, we will keep positive and focus on the good things.

One of the good things that has happened here at G & R, which we are delighted to announce, is that we have enlisted the services of very well respected local estate agent Debbie Lindsey, who is based in Seaton. Debbie brings with her a wealth of experience in estate agency so we are very pleased that she is now working with us to help move the company forward. Along the Mary Whyman who writes our wonderful blogs and also assists part-time with the business and Richard Pittendrigh (with whom we have a professional association), we may be a small team, but we are well connected, positive and enthusiastic about property - all property! We sell all kinds of property from one bedroom apartments to 6 bedroom farmhouses with acreage. Whatever kind of property you own, we will appreciate it and be delighted to market for you.

In an effort to keep up with technology, we recently launched the use of QR codes on our advertising, which is something that appeals to the high-tec buyer with a Smartphone. Please feel free to ask about this if you want to know more. We also Tweet a bit and blog weekly (thanks to Mary).

Finally, before I bore you with too much text, a quick word on the state of the market. Yes - it is quiet again and we may need some price drops to encourage more activity BUT there are some positives. It is a strong possibility that investors may start putting thier money back into bricks and mortar rather than the unstable financial markets and banks. If this happens, it could kick start the lower end of the market which will ripple through to the rest of the market and the whole thing starts moving again. We are already seeing more viewings on the smaller properties (mainly older cottages) and to this end we are looking for more character cottages (ideally in good condition) to put on the market: We are also in need of family homes with, good size gardens in quiet locations to satisfy many of the buyers in rented accommodation that can't find what they are looking for, Please consider giving us a call if you are thinking of having a valuation.

This is what our customers are saying about us...

No charge for Nissan fast charge

NISSAN is accelerating plans for a European-wide Quick Charge (QC) network for electric vehicles by giving away 400 new quick-charging stations free of charge.

It is hoped these new points will boost existing networks and give EV customers greater freedom and flexibility by effectively extending the range of their car.

As a result of the initiative, countries across Europe have been asked to pitch for a charging network and the best "bids" will win an allocation of chargers.

In the UK, Nissan has put in a bid for 65 chargers which would be strategically located at selected service stations along the motorway network, creating a "pathway" on major routes across the UK.

Contact has already been made with the three largest motorway service station chains, who have a total of 100 stations across the country. In addition, Quick Chargers would be located in some city centres and other key locations such as airports.

Nissan currently has a network of 32 EV dealers, 26 of which already have a Quick Charger installed. The remaining six dealers will be the first in the UK to install these new smaller units. The total number of dealers with QCs is expected to be 150 by the end of 2012.

The move follows an agreement between Nissan and five of Europe's leading utility and infrastructure supply companies to speed up the provision of the latest quick chargers, which are cheaper – up to half the previous price – and smaller than before. The target is to have a network of quick-charge stations across Europe with several thousand units in place by the end of 2012 and tens of thousands by 2015.

■ A Jaguar XF 2.2 diesel is travelling from New York to Los Angeles in a week in an attempt to prove how economical the car can be.

The trip has been timed to coincide with the opening of the Los Angeles Auto Show next week, and thanks to open roads with low speed limits, the Jag should be able to achieve some impressive figures.

Jaguar's Facebook and Twitter pages are tracking the progress of the car via a GPS device as it makes its way across the 2,800-mile stretch that separates the two American cities.

Expect to see the car displayed as part of Jaguar's stand at the LA Auto Show, which opens to the public in the middle of next week.

■ The start of production on the new Avensis at Toyota's Burnaston factory brings some welcome good news for Britain's manufacturing industry.

As the first cars come off the line, Toyota is announcing prices for the new car which match those for the current model, in spite of the extra equipment and improved performance on offer.

Reaching showrooms early next year, the introduction of the revised model reaffirms Toyota's commitment to Burnaston and to UK manufacturing.

Burnaston is Toyota's largest production site in Europe and has benefited from £1.15 billion investment since it opened in 1992 and, as the centre for all Avensis production, has built three generations of the model since 1997.

Unveiled at this year's Frankfurt Motor Show, the new-look Avensis boasts improved styling, practicality and fuel efficiency.

AXE VALLEY RUNNERS

500 take to the moor

WHAT a cracking morning out! That was the view of all 495 competitors who took part in the Drogo 10-mile run.

With warm, sunny weather, Dartmoor was still in its best autumn raiment.

There were plenty of challenges, with towering hills and that special Dartmoor mud.

Quite how winner Ceri Rees ran it in 1.01.22, just over six-minute mile pace is awe inspiring to mere mortal runners.

Stuart Hall, of DDFRS running club, was second in 1.02.05.

Having overtaken an injured Alex Todd on the final ascent, young Robbie Holt was the first AVR home, 14th overall in 1.10.01, with Alex 16th only nine seconds adrift.

Chris Keeffe ran well to finish 43rd in 1.14.36, with Dominic Schneiders, who ran away from Robin Britton after the wall climb 84th in 1.20.39.

Robin was 89th and second male over 60 in 1.21.22.

Nathan Berry was 102nd in 1.22.26 and Graham Newton, who blasted past Tim Sibley on the last hill, 120th in 1.24.25. Tim was 123rd just 14 seconds behind Graham.

Eleanor Wood and Dave Thomas had a good battle, but Eleanor scuttled away during a long descent, finishing second lady over 50, 133rd overall in 1.25.18 exactly the same time as she did in 2006.

Dave was 148th in 1.26.21. Mark Hilder found Ian Apps ahead of him on the final hill and both were walking, but Mark's long legs meant he overhauled Ian to finish 170th in 1.28.53 with Ian 180th in 1.30.08.

Steve Reynolds was overtaken by Mark on the second hill and despite a monumental effort, could not catch him again, finishing 204th in 1.32.42.

Wayne Tooze had a fine run, finishing 245th in 1.37.02 and Mike Giles was 258th in 1.38.51.

Pete Hughes and Dave Mutter are usually locked in combat, but this time was a tad different as Dave turned up with one off-road shoe and one on-road shoe.

Unfortunately it was nothing to do with the shoes that Pete once again was in front; it was Pete's superior flat speed that clinched it. Pete was 272nd in 1.40.03 and Dave 283rd in 1.41.10.

Andy Hitchcock was left floundering at the start and so had a long wait at the river crossing. He did well to complete in 1.43.52, finishing 312th.

Anna McLoughlin was pleased with her 399th spot in 1.53.10, as was Susie Pitt finishing 418th in 1.55.07.

During the run the AVR wags enjoyed Castle Drogo's finest coffee before Marilyn Hughes and Diane Newton acted as results takers.

Away from Drogo, Martin Croad attempted the Children In Need Payhembury Duathlon consisting of a two-mile run, 10-mile bike ride and another two-mile run.

He was seventh in 1.13.46 and reported having tired legs for the last run after pushing too hard during the bike section.

Meanwhile, Lesley Adams completed the Cannon Hill park run, finishing 149th in 27.35.

Upcoming events include: Friday November 25th – Beginners, Anchor end of Esplanade, 2-3 mile run around town; Sunday, November 27th – Bicton Blister 11am; Monday, November 28th – Club Night; Wednesday, November 23rd – Improvers Tramway Car Park Around Town run; Thursday, November 24th – Top of Park Road, Beer, on-road.

HONITON JUNIOR RUGBY

Full points for effort from lads

Honiton U8s 4
Wellington U8s 7

CURRENT numbers allowed for three games to be played against strong Wellington opposition.

In the various games Honiton were unable to take a win due to some handling errors and impatient defending. Player of the day went to Holly Moulton.

Honiton U9s 3
Wellington U9s 12

Wellington brought over a large side and the superior number of fresh legs available took the game from the home side. However, Honiton kept their heads up and never gave in.

Man of the match was awarded to the whole team because it was a great effort by all. Tries came from Finlay Keywood, Kai Freestone and Toby Barber

Honiton U10s 0
Wellington U10s 4

Honiton were outplayed by a well drilled Wellington side, with wave after wave of attack giving rise to the inevitable.

The home team never stopped trying but just couldn't get across the try line. Wellington continued to score and never looked back. Player of the Match was Rhys Phillips.

Honiton Musketeers 14 Wellington U'11 40

The Honiton boys came up against a very good Wellington side. Evenly matched up front, it was the Wellington backs who showed great skills and pace to score freely and keep Honiton's chances to a minimum.

Honiton's tries came from Jacob Wright and Dan Phillips, Wright converting both.

Although losing, the Musketeers showed some character by not giving in, battling to the final whistle. Man of the Match went to Ben Levy for his efforts in the second half

Honiton U12s 7
Wellington U12s 14

Honiton played host to Wellington on a breezy sunny morning.

Wellington scored two well-worked tries in the first half .

The second half saw a wounded Honiton put in a huge effort. After a lot of pressure from a scrum, Ben Phillips took the ball and scored Honiton's only try down the blind side.

AXMINSTER INDOOR BOWLS

THE highlight of the past fortnight for Axminster Indoor Bowls Club was undoubtedly the Ladies' fine win in their County Foxlands match against Kingsley with their 6-4 victory, winning on three of the four rinks.

Victorious at home were Brenda Edwards, Chris Hobbs, Judith Moffitt and Jan Parsons (25-20), and Phil White, Pam Clark, Marion Harris and Sheila Martin (24-21), while the away rink of Sheila Cox, Alison Glyde, Ann Clayton and Nola Stephens did well to win 25-19.

The men suffered their first defeat of the season in the Devon Over-60s League against Dawlish (69-94) with no winning rinks but the home rink of Bob Sherborne, Alan Preece, Peter Eagles and Don Meyland lost by only two shots while the away rink of David Harris, Geoff Clode, Roger Woolland and John Gough were beaten by just three shots.

In the mixed friendlies there was an excellent away win at Madeira (55-52) with a top rink of Joan Quick, Ann Clayton, Marion Harris and Brian Parsons (21-13) while Pam Clark, Phil Stephens, Ken Quick and Alison Glyde managed a creditable tie (16-16).

But prior defeats against Dawlish at home and away at Padbrook Park and Donyatt rather spoilt a good start to the season.

The game against Dawlish finished (46-80) with only Les Monk, Chris Todd, David Harris and Brian Clark successful (26-24), while Axminster were well beaten at Padbrook Park (36-75) in a triples match with no winners, and lost at Donyatt (52-67) with only Tony Payne, Pam Clark, John Chance and Sheila Martin managing a win (26-22).

COLYTON NETBALL

Winning all their pool games against Maynard School, Torrington Community College, Torquay Girls' Grammar and Plymstock School, to progress to the knock-out stages, Colyton then went on to beat a well organised and competitive Ivybridge 12-5.

Colyton finished the day undefeated with their 6-3 victory over West Buckland to take the County Netball Shield with special mention given to the Colyton defence of Ellie Cole, Gemma Smale and Ellie Marok.

They will now go on to represent Devon in the West Netball Finals on Saturday, November 28th, at the David English Sports Centre in Bournemouth.

HONITON GOLF

Lavish trophy night sees Max collect the top prize

HONITON Golf Club held its annual awards ceremony where all the year's club trophy winners were honoured and their trophies presented formally.

The winners' names will appear in the New Year on the honours boards that decorate the walls of the clubhouse.

It was lavish, it was spectacular and much to Captain Tim Avery's and John Stabb's management committee's undoubted organisational skills, it all ran like clockwork.

The night celebrated golfers from the very young to the very practised but aside from the recognition given to our club champion James Drew, probably the most impressive trophies were those won at county level and none more so than Max Pipe winning the Andrew Trophy at the Devon Captains' competition.

Club captain Tim Avery took solace from the many, year-long losses to the Ladies' section, led by lady captain Sue Ritchie, by noting that Max is a fellow left-hander and therefore, apparently, playing a much harder game than "normal" players.

Tuesday Mixed

A large field enjoyed the wonderful autumn sunshine to play a team stableford – two scores to count. Continuing their good form again, not in competition with each other but playing in the same team, Jennifer and Richard Pyle, playing with lady captain Sue and Paul Ritchie, took first place with 83pts. In second place were Hilda and Brian Hoepelman with Jane and Mike Watts on 77pts.

Ladies' Section

The Ladies Section held their annual coffee morning with a Christmas theme.

Thirty-four guests from other clubs plus Honiton ladies played 10 holes of golf and then were treated to an enticing array of festive goodies in the form of stalls, raffles and fun competition.

The atmosphere was warm and wonderful and a great thank you is sent out to the 100 or so ladies who participated.

Lesley Farley, Honiton, was the resounding winner of the putting competition with a staggering score of 19. The magnificent Christmas hamper was won by Shirley Lewis, also of Honiton.

Seniors' Section

The priority in the stableford competition was less about winning but more on improving the eclectic score.

Vic Wood did himself no harm with 11 pars to record a gross 76 and 40 points, taking first place in Division One but giving himself a hard task to improve.

◆ MAX Pipe with the Andrew Trophy with Captain Tim Avery and Lady Captain Sue Ritchie at Honiton Golf Club Awards Ceremony

The ever-present Andy Sharland was second with 38 points just edging out Jim Wallis on countback. Pat Purtell, 36, and Stan Squire, 34, completed the prize positions. Not to be outdone, Norman Runciman stormed around with 42 points to win Division Two ahead of of John Vessey with 40 points, both being deducted two shots from their handicap for their trouble.

Peter Blake, Bob Underwood and Rob Canterbury all came in with 37 points with the back nine deciding their positions. Only two "2s" were recorded, giving Paul Ritchie and Derek Herrington 39 balls each.

HONITON RUNNING CLUB

ON Saturday, November 19th Honiton Running Club organised a Duathlon to raise money for Children in Need.

It was based at the new Payhembury Village Hall which proved to be a good venue for this event. The event comprised a 2.3-mile run followed by a 10-mile bike ride and finally the 2.3-mile run again.

There were 17 "official" teams mainly individuals, but also some families joined in with children participating in one or two of the legs.

The winner was Richard Harvey in a time of 1hr 8mins 52secs followed closely by Mark Stamp.

Helen Davy was the first lady in a very respectable time of 1hr 11mins 53secs. Tim Legg was the fastest on both running legs and Mark was the fastest on the bike leg.

Other Honiton participants were the team of Fiona Prew (biker) and Graham Rooms (runner) who came third, Warren Oak came eighth, Nick and Sandra Thorpe who came 11th and 12th respectively and Olivia who only ran the first leg. The event raised £225 for Children in Need which exceeded all expectations.

South West Road Runners' Castle Drogo 10-mile off-road race is very popular and 11 Honiton runners decided to take part.

Runners start and finish outside the castle and are treated to steep and narrow descents before having to tackle the first long uphill at about three miles. The race then becomes undulating although a very muddy section before a flat section following the River Teign for about two miles. Then comes the infamous Hunters' Path, which usually finishes off the most seasoned runner, although spectacular views make up for all the pain. Bruce Strawbridge had a brilliant run to finish 48th in 1 hour 15.

He was surprised to have beaten Ian Stewart who was next back for Honiton in 60th place in 1.16.

Richard Harris was next back but Steve Davey was hot on his heels although Steve didn't see him until the finish. Richard was 92nd in 1.21 with Steve just three places and five seconds later.

There was then a big gap before Steve's wife Judy finished in 172nd place in 1.29 having overtaken Howard Bidmead on Hunters' Path. Howard is still nursing an injury and his race suffered because of it.

He was 175th also in 1.29. Pippa Westall had a strong race coming 226th in 1.35.

Olivia Higginson beat Nick Bradley-Carter in their last race but even though Nick had a fall, this didn't stop him coming in ahead of Olivia.

Olivia didn't escape injury either as she was stung by a bee within the first mile.

Nick was 275th in 1.40 and Olivia 295th in 1.42. Claire Melbourne was tackling this race for the first time and was happy to come 407th in 1.54, and Tracey Strawbridge, who was trying out her new shoes, was pleased with her performance as she managed 426th place in 1.56. Thanks to Axe Valley Runners for allowing seven of the Honiton runners to hitch a lift on their bus and for throwing in some great entertainment en route.

HONITON HORNETS HOCKEY

Darts go down fighting in close game

Dart 2nds 1 - Honiton Hornets 4

HONITON travelled to Totnes for what always turns out to be a close match.

This weekend was no exception with end-to-end stuff from the opening whistle.

While Honiton seemed to have the majority of possession, they were initially unable to get many shots on goal as Dart defended extremely well, and in numbers.

Honiton's defence consisting of Sue Stone, Lorraine Ritchie, Sami Parke and Vicky Morris, were also hard to get around and as a result no goals were forthcoming for most of the first half.

A break for Honiton finally came when Vicky Morris took a quick free-hit pass to Becky Bond, who again made a quick pass to Vanessa Trdue.

Vanessa was ready in the circle to sweep it past the Dart keeper.

Dart, however, kept up their attack.

They were awarded a goal of their own shortly afterwards leaving the score equal at half time.

In the second half Honiton's Lucy Le Cocq moved to centre midfield and exhausted the Dart defence, making some great runs into the circle.

In the final 20 minutes, with Dart's defence tiring, Honiton were able to score 3 more goals.

The first came from Becky Bond, who followed up a great pass across the circle from Jean Herniman.

The second came from Vanessa Trdue, who pushed in a cross circle pass from Amy Phillips.

Then Amy scored her own solo effort when she took a long corner and ran the ball along the back line scoring a great goal from an impossible angle.

Player of the match was Sami Parke, closely followed by Vicky Morris and Lucy Le Cocq.

Honiton continue to practice on a Tuesday evening at Cullompton Sports Centre at 7pm until 8.30pm, meeting in Honiton at 6.30pm.

New members are always welcome regardless of ability.

OFFWELL FC

Offwell back in form with big victory over Sandford

Offwell Rangers 4 Sandford 1

WITH a bad performance and result last weekend Offwell came into this game hoping to return to form, and they did just that.

A great start to the game and tempo with the yellows playing the better stuff when Euan Carnelly slid the ball into the back of the next.

Withing 10 minutes Offwell got a second through skipper Lewis Couch.

The second half saw the Yellows in control and their rewards came when Liam Spiller netted home

A good five-minute spell from Sandford saw them get a consolation goal, but the Yellows increased their work rate again and substitue Louis Grant placed one perfectly around the keeper to make it 4-1. This was a great team effort but two players who had their best games in Offwell kit were Jake Swain and Euan Carnelly.

Next weekend Offwell face a local derby away to Upottery. A big thanks to Whittakers for sponsoring the new football shed and also to Offwell sports and social club for the kit sponsors.

Tipton end unbeaten run by Feniton with only goal

ADAM Connett struck the only goal of the game as Tipton St John ended Feniton's five-game unbeaten run and climbed to third place in Division One.

By KEVIN FAHEY
sport.pulmans@tindlenews.co.uk

Feniton had rattled in 26 goals in their previous winning spell and hadn't lost since the end of September, so Tipton boss Dave Strawbridge was delighted with his side's success.

"It was a great team performance and I was really chuffed with the result," said Strawbridge. "Feniton probably had the better chances in the first half but we sneaked the vital goal 10 minutes from the end.

"Hopefully, we can now push on and challenge for promotion into the Premier Division. These are exciting times for us."

There was no hiding Honiton Town's delight in achieving their first win of the season in Division Two with a convincing 4-0 victory over Pinhoe.

"It has been coming but it was nice to get that first win and hopefully we can push on from here," said Honiton skipper Darren Witt.

"We have had a few players come back to us in recent weeks and it has been going a lot better."

Mark Bowles struck twice and there were also goals for Tim Genders and Joe Dixon while holding midfielder Jake Netherway had an outstanding game.

Also in Division Two 19-year-old Callum Somers struck a superb hat-trick as Colyton beat Sidmouth Town 5-2 with other goals coming from Richard Tratt and George Moore.

"It was our first league game in weeks which has been incredibly frustrating," said manager Keith Somers.

In the Premier Division Beer Albion were unfortunate to concede a last-minute penalty in the 2-1 home defeat against Morchard Bishop. Martin Adkin had earlier equalised in an even game.

In Division Three Keith Lane scored twice as Upottery brushed aside Axmouth Town reserves 5-0.

In Division Six only goal difference keeps Awliscombe United off top spot following a 4-2 win against Topsham Town Thirds.

Martin Wilmington's side share 22 points with Chumleigh but the latter have a much better goal difference and have played two games fewer.

"Saturday was a great win for us," said Wilmington. "We didn't have a good start falling 2-0 down but fortunately Ben Gay got one back just before half-time and that gave the lads a real lift."

Second-half goals from Pete Nelson (two) and a second for Gay clinched the victory.

Axmouth maintained their top-four place in Division Five with a very hard fought 1-0 home victory over visiting Lords XI who were looking to overtake the Axes with a win themselves.

There were only 14 minutes remaining when Reece Hales whipped over a great cross which Charlie Clarke met with a superb volley to break the deadlock.

"That is as good a game as many will see this season between two well matched sides," said Axmouth manager Laurie Forino.

Axmouth's Asa Sandman was named man of the match.

PERRY STREET LEAGUE

Giant-slayer Uplyme in Round Two

UPLYME stunned unbeaten Division Two leaders Crewkerne Reserves with an exciting 3-2 victory in the first round of the Daisy Hutchings Cup.

"It was a great win," said Uplyme manager Rob Coombs.

"It was much better than the scoreline suggested which probably flattered them because at times we battered them."

After a cautious opening 20 minutes, Uplyme took control of the game as James Beddows's fierce, low cross was spilled into his own net by the Crewkerne goalkeeper and then Johnny Davies made it 2-0 just before half-time.

In the 50th minute Gavin Fowler drilled his penalty over the crossbar but that was a minor blip as Joel Seward made it 3-0 with a superb individual goal.

Despite going down to 10 men when their keeper was sent off, Crewkerne staged a late rally but Uplyme, for whom Graham White was outstanding, ended deserved winners.

Millwey Rise Reserves also cantered into the next round of the Hutchings Cup with a 7-1 hammering of Division Three leaders Chard United. Mark Pike opened the scoring after just 13 seconds and a superb Matt Beachy free kick extended the lead in the third minute.

Levi Hoole grabbed a double and there were also goals for Mark Jenkins, Jack Turner (penalty) and an own goal to leave manager Simon Flint delighted.

"It was nice to beat Chard and sets us up nicely for the John Fowler Cup semi final against Luso-Chard next weekend," said Flint.

West and Middle Chinnock Reserves edged through in a seven-goal thriller at struggling Combe A with Danny Rudge clinching the decisive late winner. "I had no subs and at the age of 46 I didn't fancy extra time so I was delighted to see Danny's late winner," said manager Kevin Lacey. Combe A belied their place at the bottom of Division Three as they raced into a 2-0 lead before Ash Cooper and two from Mark Cawley put Chinnock in front.

Division Three side Waytown Hounds secured an upset by beating Division Two Pymore 2-1 with goals from Gary Goodall and Paul Watkins either side of Tim Hussey's equaliser.

Division Two promotion contenders South Petherton Reserves dismissed Farway United Reserves 3-0 with goals from Ashley Smith, Dan Rogers and James Connett.

Luso-Chard booked their place in the next round with a 4-1 win against Winsham United Reserves with goals from Igor Costa (two), Renalto Silva and a Artur Jacasszek (penalty).

Millwey Rise retained their leadership of Division One with a 4-1 win at Ilminster Colts with two goals apiece from Ben Turner and Sam Diblin.

The Division Four match between Chard United Reserves and Combe B was abandoned in the 70th minute after Combe keeper Luke Lawrence suffered a bad knee injury. "He couldn't be moved he was in such pain and by the time an ambulance arrived it was getting dark so we decided to abandon it," said Chard boss Steve Scriven.

COLYTON FC

COLYTON were back in league action for the first time since October 10th against rivals Sidmouth who had posted good results in prior weeks.

Both teams started the game in nervy fashion and for the first 10 minutes it was a scrappy affair.

Sidmouth shaded the early exchanges and were slightly wasteful with a couple of chances they created early on.

Colyton began to grow in confidence and on the half-hour mark Richard Tratt stole in front of the defender to turn the ball in after good work down the left side from Nathan Maddocks.

It was Tratt again who posed problems when he raced clear of the defence and was upended by the last defender.

Although the foul looked just outside the box, the referee judged it to be a penalty.

Callum Somers stepped up and despite fingertips from the goalkeeper, sent the ball into the net to give Colyton a slightly fortuitous two goal advantage going into the break.

The Tanners made the perfect start to the second period when George Moore ghosted into the area to slide home a well worked move which gave Colyton breathing space.

With just 60 minutes on the clock another penalty was awarded. Somers again beat the keeper from the spot.

But Sidmouth battled well and scored two goals in quick succession. Then they began to push forward. However with gaps appearing in defence Somers took full advantage when he raced on to a Nick Pritchard through ball and slotted into the corner to put the match beyond doubt and claim his hat trick.

CARLSBERG SOUTH WEST PENINSULA

Exmouth Town 4
Ottery St Mary 0

OTTERY stay rooted to the bottom of the division after this latest setback against the new leaders.

The gulf in class was only too evident as Exmouth opened the scoring in the 18th minute when Ali Sawyer fired them into the lead.

Dave O'Connor made it 2-0 just before half-time and the home side stretched their lead with further goals from Kyle Bassett and O'Connor from the penalty spot.

Axminster Town didn't have a game but next Saturday they take on promotion contenders Okehampton Argyle while the Otters are away to fourth-placed Liverton United.

Holders stroll into cup final against 10-man Crewkerne

Coronation Cup Semi-Final
Lyme Regis 3 Crewkerne Town 0

CORONATION Cup holders Lyme Regis are now just 90 minutes away from retaining their title after booking their place in the final on Boxing Day with this comfortable victory.

With teenager Will Mowbray outstanding in midfield, Premier Division leaders Lyme bossed the game and were already 3-0 up by half-time with goals from Joe Bond, Steve Batey and Mark Bailey.

Any slim hopes Crewkerne may have had of a fightback were effectively ended when they were reduced to 10 men just before the break. Adam Dawe was the man sent off in the 35th minute for dissent.

"It spoilt the rest of the game which was a shame but it is good to get back into the final and we would like to retain the cup," said Lyme manager Robin Townsend.

Lyme will face South Petherton in the final after they beat Beaminster following a penalty shoot-out.

Keeper James Smith was the hero as he saved all four of Beaminster's penalties when the game had ended 2-2 after extra time, in which Petherton were forced to play with 10 men.

"Dan Holt, who is only 16, made his senior debut and he suffers with diabetes and after running his socks off in the normal 90 minutes he just couldn't continue," said manager Gordon Childs. "It was a great team performance which showed our resilience and class."

Crewkerne manager Nick Murphy said: "It was a good battle on Saturday aand Barry Hayne missed a great chance in the 10th minute which might have made the game very different.

"But Lyme deserved the win and we wish them luck in the final."
